

INTERNATIONAL UNION
OF ANGIOLOGY

MARCH 6TH 2021
14.00 - 16.00 CET

FROM THE
VIRTUAL WORLD CONGRESS OF THE INTERNATIONAL UNION OF ANGIOLOGY
"the best sessions"

Cerebro vascular diseases

Moderator: P.L. Antignani (Italy)

Keynote lectures:

Update on stroke risk stratification in patients with ACS and new studies that are about to start
A. Nicolaides (Cyprus)

New carotid diseases guidelines
A.L. Abbott (Australia)

Carotid endarterectomy and stenting- comparison of two methods performed in the same patient
P. Myrcha (Poland)

Progression of coronary calcium burden and carotid stiffness in patients with essential thrombocythaemia associated with jak2 v617f
A. Blinc (Slovenia)

Optimal timing of carotid interventions in symptomatic patients
P. Gloviczki (USA)

Urgent carotid endarterectomy
R. Borioni (Italy)

What pooling of randomised trial results tells us about the dangers of carotid stenting compared to endarterectomy in symptomatic and asymptomatic patients
A. Saratzis (UK)

PANELISTS

O. Ayoub (Saudi Arabia) - E. M. Avgerinos (USA) - A. Giannopoulos (Greece)
G. Madycki (Poland) - D. Mittapalli (UK) - J. Pitha (Czech Republic)
T. Rundek (USA) - S.H. Shahidi (Denmark) - A. Thapar (UK) - T. Wijeratne (Australia)

Registration required at this link:
https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_5NYi-K62QTyja-JrzapSHw